CAUSE

On October 31, 2008, the defendant appeared before Your Honor for a detention hearing, at which time he was released on a personal recognizance bond with pretrial services supervision and the special conditions listed on the cover page of this report.

Since his release to supervision, the defendant has remained fully compliant with the conditions of his GPS monitoring and appearance bond. He has appeared as directed, incurred no new law violations, and maintained a residence in Kent, Washington with his wife and children, whom he cares for during the day. Home contacts made with the defendant at his residence have revealed no observed concerns or violations. The defendant did not possess a passport at the time of his release, however, a passport stop notice has been sent to the State Department prohibiting his application for any new travel documents while his case is pending.

The defendant has entered a guilty plea to the underlying charges and is presently scheduled for sentencing on June 26, 2009, before The Honorable John C. Coughenour.

Both Defense counsel and Assistant U.S. Attorney have been notified and concur with the recommendation.

I declare under penalty of perjury that the foregoing is true and correct.
